

Introducing the work of Barbara Hands NDD ATD ATC

You are about to enter the gallery of Barbara's impressive portfolio of Dog Breed Art.

Having studied at the prestigious Harris College of Art in Lancashire and Manchester College of Art, Barbara Hands, who signs her artwork as 'Boz' (a derivative of her maiden name, Boswell), has taught Art for most of her working life. Combine this with her success as a Breeder of West Highland White Terriers and her International Dog Show Judging career and you will begin to understand her depth of knowledge of the structure of the dog breeds she paints and her skill in capturing the true essence of each of her dog subjects. Barbara's natural talent for painting landscapes and skies complements her canine subjects to produce very collectible works that will give you great pleasure and enhance any collection of Dog Breed Art.
